"The NLW Group provides unique, reliable and flexible solutions to employers' capacity issues in a socially responsible way."

"The NLW Group supports valuable and appropriate work for people with an occupational disability."

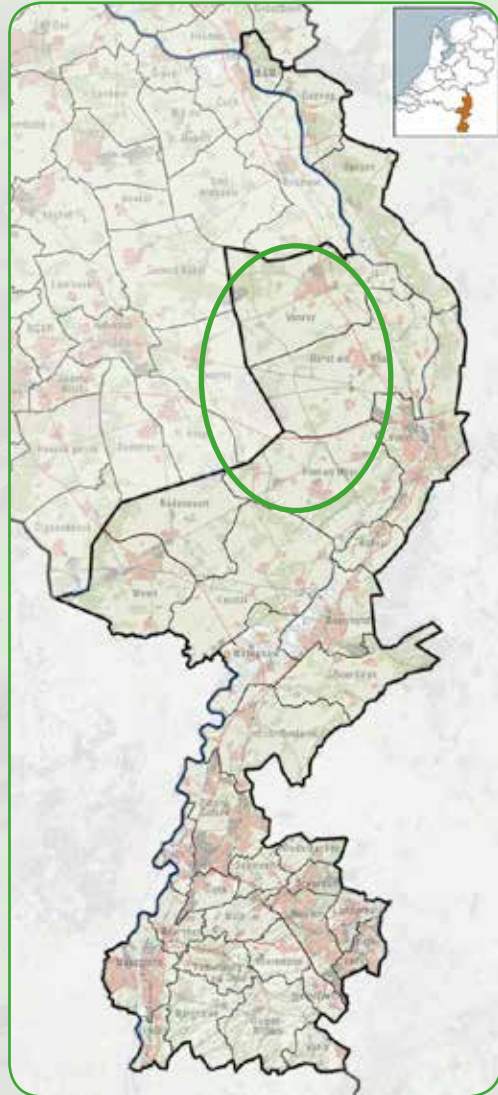

"Expansion of value creation for employees with an occupational disability, for employers and for municipalities."

Who is the NLW Group...

NLW stands for Noord-Limburg West, the area in which the NLW Group has been offering work to people with an occupational disability since 1955. The NLW Group is an experienced professional in the training and the placing of this target group on the labour market.

The NLW Group

- seconds employees or groups of employees to employers in the region
- works on location at companies, with groups of employees, under its own management
- performs assigned tasks at its own locations in the municipalities of Peel en Maas and Venray

...now that is a smart way of doing business!

Why you should choose the NLW Group...

The NLW Group

- has already been a reliable business partner for 60 years
- has a great deal of experience in offering work to people with an occupational disability
- believes in clear and fair pricing and high-quality production and service
- has well-trained, enthusiastic, loyal and flexible employees

What will it bring to your company...

- cost reductions through being able to focus on your core business
- a tailor-made package to take care of your capacity problems, temporary or otherwise
- implementation of your obligations within the framework of the Dutch Participation Act and the Quotum Act
- enhancement of your image through doing business in a socially responsible manner
